

March 31, 2008

Volunteers are bringing it home for the Rally

Collectors Australia-wide will head to the Rockhampton Heritage Village this weekend to showcase their passions.

Over 30 types of Australian history collections will be on show as part of the Queensland Heritage Rally to be held from Friday, April 4 to Sunday, April 6.

The enthusiasm of the Heritage Village volunteers is responsible for bringing the Queensland Heritage Rally to Rockhampton in a three-day cultural celebration of the region's history.

A sample of collections on display will be over 50 vintage cars, 156 steam engines plus veteran earthmovers and memorabilia of many kinds.

Blacksmiths and woodcutters will demonstrate their crafts with working displays and chainsaw races.

The Queensland Heritage Rally will entertain all ages with markets, live music and bush poetry.

Entry is free for children under four; children aged four to 15 are $5; from 16 years old to adult are $8; family pass (consisting of two adults and three children) is $22. A three-day adult pass is $20 and a three-day child pass is $12.

For more information, contact the Rockhampton Heritage Village on 4936 1026, or visit the website at www.queenslandheritagerally.com.

Ends ends ends